

RETIREMENT SYSTEM INVESTMENT COMMISSION

Audit and Enterprise Risk Management Committee

Commissioner Bill Hancock, CPA

Mr. William H. (Bill) Hancock, CPA brings more than 25 years of experience in financial and accounting services. He is a Certified Public Accountant and the managing partner of the Brittingham Group, LLC located in West Columbia, South Carolina.

He joined the Brittingham Group as a staff accountant in 1992 and was elected managing partner in 2013. For over 10 years he was responsible for the Firm's investment advisory/financial planning practice before successfully selling it, requiring him to surrender his Series 7 and 66 securities and South Carolina insurance licenses. Today, he continues to provide income tax planning and preparation services for individuals and business as well as providing audit/attest services for municipalities, non-profits, special purpose districts, and various political subdivisions.

As an active member of the community, Mr. Hancock is an Elder at Forest Lake Presbyterian Church, has served as the Chair of the Finance committee, serves on the Endowment committee, and is on several ad hoc committees for the church. He also serves on the board of directors and the finance committee for Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina (PCSC). PCSC has six Life Plan Communities across South Carolina and is a compassionate Christian ministry dedicated to enriching the quality of life for seniors of all faiths.

For over 20 years, he was a member of the Columbia East Rotary Club serving as Club Treasurer for most of that time. In 2012, he was appointed by South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley to be a Commissioner for the East Richland County Public Service District before resigning to serve as a Commissioner for the RSIC.

A proud graduate of the Citadel, Mr. Hancock graduated in 1990 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting. He also studied at the University of South Carolina's Moore School of Business.

Mr. Hancock resides in Columbia, South Carolina with his wife, Lori, a high school English teacher, and their two daughters. In his spare time Mr. Hancock enjoys hunting and playing golf.

Commissioner Bill Condon, J.D., M.A., CPA

Mr. William J. Condon, Jr. (Bill) is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and an attorney. After graduating from Clemson University with a B.S. in Accounting, he began his accounting career with Ernst & Young and in short order became a CPA. At the accounting firm, he held positions in the audit and tax departments, serving as an Audit Manager during the last three years of his tenure at E&Y. He managed the audits of clients in various industries including audits of companies in the financial services industry.

His experience also includes having served as Chief Financial Officer for a government agency. In this role, he oversaw the banking and investment activities as well as the Accounting, Human Resources, and Information Technology activities at the agency. Eventually, Mr. Condon transitioned from the public sector back to the private sector, serving as a Senior Consultant for a Silicon Valley-based software development company that serviced clients throughout North America.

Mr. Condon began his legal career as a trial attorney for the United States Department of Justice litigating civil rights cases. Looking to blend his accounting/finance experience with his legal skills, he later served as a securities-enforcement attorney for the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, as a securities-compliance and litigation attorney in private practice, and as a tax attorney litigating significant tax cases for the South Carolina Department of Revenue.

Today, Mr. Condon is an attorney for the South Carolina State Treasurer's Office where he has served as both Deputy General Counsel and the General Counsel and has worked with many large financial institutions on custody, securities lending, Section 529 college savings program, and other banking and investment matters.

Mr. Condon earned his Juris Doctor and Master in Public Policy degrees from Regent University.
